ORDER

Regarding the jet engine inspection scheduled for December 21, 2016 at Boeing's property in the State of Washington,

IT IS ORDERED:

1) Bauer Built must disclose the identities of their experts/boroscope operator who will enter the property to examine the jet engine. If they are consulting experts only, their opinions need not be disclosed.

2) If Bauer Built decides not to use an inspecting consultant as a trial expert, or to use the facts and opinions of the consulting expert as the basis of a trial expert's testimony, no other party is permitted to pursue discovery of the consulting expert's opinions, use that expert as a trial witness, or otherwise mention that certain Bauer Built consultants performed an inspection but were not called as witnesses at trial.

December 20, 2016.
